Day 1

Tomorrow
9:00-16:00

Ávila

1 House of Los Deanes

Manor house built in the 16th century in Renaissance style, as a residence for the Dean of the cathedral

0.50 Horas

Ávila

2 Palace of Los Serrano

Built in the Renaissance style in 1557, it belonged to councilman Pedro Álvarez Serrano. Constructed of granite ashlar, it has three stories, an unusual feature in the city.

0.50 Horas

Afternoon
16:00-21:00

Ávila

1 Palace of Los Verdugo

Facing north, it is located on Lope Núñez street, a road that leads into the walled city from the San Vicente Gate.

0.50 Horas

Ávila

2 Palace of Águila

It was commissioned in the 16th century by Miguel del Águila.

0.50 Horas

Ávila

3 Palace of Polentinos

The complex consists of the Contreras or Polentinos palace, as the original core, and a series of buildings that have been added over time (from the installation of the Academy of Intendancy in 1875, until its conversion into the Military Historical Archive in 1993).

0.50 Horas

Day 2

Tomorrow
9:00-16:00

Ávila

1 Palace of Núñez Vela

Attached to the southern wall of the city wall, it was commissioned in the Renaissance style by Blasco Núñez Vela, the first viceroy of Peru, around 1541.

0.50 Horas

Ávila

2 Palace of Los Superunda

Declared a National Monument in 1992

0.50 Horas

Ávila

3 Tower of los Guzmanes

0.25 Horas

Afternoon
16:00-21:00

Ávila

1 Palace of los Dávila

The wall would have, towards the interior, a second defensive belt made up of the palaces of the nobility and clergy which, attached to the inner walls, would allow the defense against possible popular revolts and/or incursions of the enemy into the city.

0.50 Horas

Ávila

2 Palace of Valderrábanos

Located in the Plaza de la Catedral, it is also known as the house of Gonzalo Dávila

1.00 Horas

Ávila

3

Palace of Los Velada

Erected in the Cathedral square, its construction is very heterogeneous, dating from the late 15th to early 16th century.

1.00 Horas

